

Petri Mikael Rouvinen

Basic Information

- Gender: Male.
- Country of citizenship: Finland.
- Place and year of birth: Finland, 1968.
- Current residence: Espoo, Finland.

Education and degrees awarded

- Doctor of Philosophy, Economics, Vanderbilt University, May 2000.
- Master of Arts, Vanderbilt University, Economics, Aug 1999.
- Master of Science, Helsinki School of Economics, Economics, Sep 1992.

Current positions

- Research Director, ETLA, The Research Institute of the Finnish Economy, Mar 2000–.
- CEO, Etlatiето Oy (a subsidiary of ETLA), Jul 2012–.

Previous work experience

- Research Director, Etlatiето Oy, Mar 2000–May 2012.
- Visiting scholar, IIASA, International Institute for Applied Systems Analysis, Austria, Sep 2010 – Feb 2011.
- Jean Monnet Fellow, European University Institute, Robert Schuman Centre, Sep 2004 – Jul 2005.
- Researcher, ETLA and Etlatiето Oy, May 1997 – Feb 2000.
- PhD candidate (resident), Vanderbilt University, Sep 1994 – May 1997.

Research funding as well as leadership and supervision

- Jean Monnet Fellowship for participating in the European Forum 2004–2005 at the Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies, European University Institute, Florence, Italy.
- Academy of Finland Grant (106719), 2004.
- Yrjö Jahnsson Foundation Grant (5106), 2004.
- Yrjö Jahnsson Foundation Grants for studies abroad (3486 and 3829), 1996 and 1997.
- ASLA–Fulbright Study Grant for studies abroad (15941188), ASLA–Fulbright Foundation, 1994.
- Participation in some 150 research projects contracted by Finnish or international public or private bodies. In some one-third of these projects, the project leader or the principal investigator. The budget of some of these projects has been more than one million euros.

Other academic merits

- Pre-examiner of Ossi Lindström’s PhD dissertation entitled “Essays on the Dynamic Interactions between Investments and Corporate Financing”, Aalto University, Sep 2011.
- Pre-examiner of Tanja Tanayama’s PhD dissertation entitled “Allocation and effects of R&D subsidies: selection, screening and strategic behavior”, Helsinki School of Economics, Feb 2007.
- Examiner of Jyri Järvinen’s Licentiate thesis “International R&D Spillovers and European Economic Integration”, Turku School of Economics, June 2006.

Scientific and societal impact of research (a CV listing all publications is available upon request)

- 25 published scholarly articles.
- 14 published articles in edited volumes by international publishers.
- 20 published articles in edited volumes by Finnish publishers.
- 20 authored books.
- 4 edited books.
- Over 100 reports, papers, and other publications.
- Some 50 presentations annually to audiences largely consisting of policymakers.
- Several articles and interviews in popular media annually.